Vol. XXVI No. 4

P.O. Box 2715, Wenatchee, WA 98807

November 2010

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Here it is time to put the binding and the label on the 26th year of the North Central Washington Quilt Guild. What a year this has been! We have had lots of fun activities like sewing with the Girl Scouts, building a gigantic quilt top, Sew Day Socials, exciting and educational Work Shops, entertaining Programs, fabulous Retreats, a beautiful and functional Library, a successful Quilt Show and so much more.

I have to take this opportunity to say Thank You to our board members, committee chairs and volunteers. They were truly dedicated to serve the Guild to make it a wonderful organization to be a part of. They were creative, frugal, and cohesive. As a team they worked together to overcome obstacles and encourage and support each other. Their Goals and objectives were certainly met to make your membership a great value. They were outstanding! Thank you, Thank you, Thank You!

It was an honor for me to serve as your President. I value your trust in me to allow me the privilege to lead you. I was flattered to be asked to serve another year but respectfully declined so I can devote my attention to my new service position of Deputy Director of the Quilts of Valor Foundation. As you know QOV is my passion and I am looking forward to leading on a National level overseeing the Regional Coordinators.

I am pleased to pass the gavel to Kathy Baker. I am sure under her leadership she and her board will continue the traditions and add new elements to your guild.

I hope in the coming year more of you will choose to get involved in activities and events. Your membership is what you make of it.

Best regards,
Lori Kutch

QUILT SHOW SUMMARY

The 2010 Harvest of Quilt Show has come and gone but a lot of great memories remain. The show went off without a hitch due to the dedicated staff of Chair people and their volunteers, and for that we are all grateful. The job of Quilt Show Chairman was made so much easier because I knew I had reliable people I could count on. If you are new to the North Central Washington Quilt Guild please consider asking Terry Hunter how you can be of help next year. We are a diverse group of quilters and I have enjoyed getting further acquainted with each one of you and the quilt show is a great avenue.

This year's show was a financial success as well. Many of the plans we implemented seemed to pay off. Publicity around the valley was noticed by many who reported seeing our posters and bookmarks. The articles in the Wenatchee World, The Good Life and other event periodicals helped to boost our attendance significantly, as well as the radio spots on our local stations. The outstandingly beautiful Raffle Quilt nearly sold out and our Preview Party put a sizable amount of money into our Scholarship fund.

Quilt show CD's are in the works and will be available at the January 2011 meeting to purchase and pick-up. Orders will be taken at the November 2010 guild Pot luck and should be under $10.00.

We have all worked hard this past year and the culmination of the showing of our works and the profit of our labors will benefit every guild member in the coming year. Congratulations and sincere gratitude to all.

Your 2010 Quilt Show Chairs,

Jill Therriault and Terry Hunter

BOUTIQUE

Thank you to the many volunteers and the guild members' donations that made the boutique a success. Approximately $2300 was raised.

Chris Dugan and Judy Preston

It's Not Too Early to Begin Thinking About the 2011 Harvest of Quilts!

One of the most important things I learned from Jill and the wonderful group of committee chairs who made the 2010 Harvest of Quilts such a success, was that early planning is very important! Many of those involved have been involved in producing our annual event for many years, but many of us were learning as this past year went along. The first order of business is to find out who will be part of the Quilt Show team for another year, and who would like to join us, maybe for the first time. There are many opportunities, small and large, that each of you would enjoy, and some of those might be working with people who already know their position very well. Below is a list of the areas we need to cover:

Admissions	Community Booth	Props	2011 Raffle Quilt
Awards	Door Prizes	Printing	Raffle Ticket Sales
Ballot	Hospitality Room	Publicity	and Display
Counting	Marketing	Quilt Drop-Off	Silent Demos
Bed Turning	Merchant Mall	Quilt Return	Laundry/Packing of
Boutique	Live Demos	Show Set-Up	Sheets
CD/SlideShow	Photography	Show Take-Down	White Glove
Challenge 2011

As I mentioned, many of these areas have chairs, but those chairs will need help, and all of them provide a chance to learn more about what it takes to put on our very successful quilt show. Give me a call to discuss any of these topics.

The position that I am most anxious to fill at this time is my Co-Chair. This is the time to start getting acquainted with the process and the people involved. I would be happy to talk to you about my experience and the responsibilities of the Quilt Show Co-Chair. It's always helpful to have more information when making a decision about a volunteer position, and I'd be happy to share that with you. You can e-mail me at jthunter@charter.net or give me a call at 884-5662. I will welcome your call!

Have a wonderful holiday season!

Terry Hunter, 2011 Quilt Show Chair
