

NCW QUILT GUILD GENERAL MEETING

Wednesday, November 17, 2010– Masonic Center

The meeting began with our annual Potluck dinner with the Batten Blades being first in line as the result of winning the popular vote for the best Round Robin challenge quilt for 2010.

- Guests were introduced.
- The officers for year 2011 were introduced.

President: Kathy Baker
Secretary: Felicity Lape

Vice President: Ann Baye
Treasurer: Lenora Branstetter – Marge Marshall/2012

- Birthdays were recognized with gifts of fat quarters.
- “The Blessings Basket” was passed. Karen of Sew Creative again donated a percentage of shop sales as the basket was passed. This will continue through December. Thank you Sew Creative!

Minutes: Minutes of the October meeting were approved with Lillie moving and Lenora seconding. Motion carried.

Announcements & Reports:

Girl Scout Sew Day – Saturday, November 20: Ann thanked everyone for donations of holiday fabric. There will be approximately 13 girls – ages 9 to 16. We could use a few more volunteers. Come to the Masonic Center, set up from 8:00 am, start program at 9:00 am. The girls will be making stockings to donate to CASA. Hopefully, one to keep and one to donate – depending on time.

Borders On The Edge: This Round Robin is sponsoring a sew retreat at the Union Hall January 21-23. The cost is $10.00. There are about 10 spots left. If interested, talk to Lenora.

Hospitality: Laura requested more volunteers for their committee. They are in need of more sign ups for cookies and would appreciate help with clean up. The sign up sheets will be circulating during the meeting. If there are vacant spots for snacks, coffee and water will be set out at those meetings.

IMPORTANT GUILD MEETING: There will be an important meeting to discuss the future of our Guild at 6:30 pm, on Tuesday, November 30. The meeting will be at the Wenatchee Valley Medical Clinic. (The Mares Building), Conference Room C. This is the room to the left of the Pharmacy. Please come; your input is needed.

Programs/Workshops: Val shares that they are working on some great programs for the coming year. Anyone with ideas for programs, please call. Kathy will work with her on using some of our local talent for programs and invites everyone to contribute ideas.

- January meeting the fabric will be “hearts”. Bring 12, 5” squares. Please be sure your squares are the correct size.

Membership: Another person is needed for this committee to help with dues and new members. The early months of the year are the busiest. Contact Donna Rankin

Comfort Quilts: Ann Beckman announced that there were 20 quilts donated this year. She will be the coordinator for Comfort Quilts again in 2011 but she would like someone to step forward to work with her on this project and then take over in 2012.

Quilts of Valor: Lori told us that she has accepted the position of Deputy Director for the US and will work with Regional Coordinators on Quilts of Valor on a national level in the coming year. Everyone wished her well. She also put out a call for quilts for a special need by December 7. If you have a quilt done or nearly done, please see her.

Quilt Show: Jill will have Quilt Show CD’s at the January meeting. They will be about $8.00. A few of the winning quilts from the show were on display and each was talked about.

Block of the Month: There will be no block drawing this evening. We will resume with a drawing in January.

Show and Tell

Two door prizes were awarded – one for November and one for December. Ann Baye will be basket coordinator next year and requested donations of patterns, books and other goodies for door prizes.

Next Board Meeting: – January 3 at the home of Lenora Branstetter, 6:30 pm.

Next regular Guild Meeting, January 26 at 6:30 social, 7:00pm regular meeting at the Masonic Center.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully,
Donna Rankin
Secretary
