Guild Activities

Quilt Show -

The annual NCW Quilt Show, held every August, is a two-day show given to display the work of the Guild's members to community.

Retreats -

Retreats are held yearly, in the spring and fall. These three-day weekend retreats are the perfect opportunity to get away and spend quality time with your sewing machine and quilting buddies!

Round Robins -

These are smaller groups that meet on a regular basis to sew together. Each group decides their own schedule, projects, etc.

Comfort Quilts -

NCWQG makes quilts as gifts of friendship or comfort for others in the community. Many organizations in the Wenatchee Valley have been, and are beneficiaries of these quilts: CASA, Chief for a Day, Confluence Health Palliative Care and Cancer Center, and Birth Center, Leavenworth Rehab Center, and others.

Membership

As a member of the North Central Washington Quilt Guild, you join others to become part of a vital, creative, caring community of quilters.

Dues are $30.00 per year, and provide the following member benefits:

Admission to Guild meetings, which generally include a business meeting, program or special event, and a show and tell opportunity to share ones work/project with the group.

A quarterly newsletter via Email

Free entry of quilts in the Guild's annual quilt show

A name tag kit
