

“Tidbit” ~ A Message from the President
Diane Mitchell, June 15, 2021

I hope you are all ready to get Guild meetings going again because I am. It has been a long dry spell.

Events Scheduled:

Saturday, June 19 th	Pop-Up Quilt Show
Wednesday, June 30 th	Guild Meeting ~ Pybus Market Event Room
Saturday, July 10 th	Fabric & More Sale at the Eagles Hall on N Wenatchee Avenue
Wednesday, July 28 th	Guild Meeting ~ Pybus Market Event Room
Wednesday, August 25 th	Guild Meeting ~ Pybus Market Event Room

June 19, 2021 ~ Pop-Up Quilt Show: We are joining the Modern Quilt Guild for an impromptu show on the River Walk’s grassy edge between 10ish to 2 p.m~ish between Pybus Market and 9th St. Bring your quilts you want to show, protection you deem necessary, water, lunch, lawn chair and sunscreen. Tell your friends it is happening. We will have advertisement for the Fabric & More sale available to pass out to anyone interested. There will be sign boards announcing we have a quilt show going. Come to show, come to visit. Hope to see you there.

Quilt Guild Meetings: The first three (3) guild meetings are scheduled for the event room at Pybus Market; June 30, July 28 and August 25th from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. The event room is on the south end of the building on the river side. Parking is available around the whole building. The restroom facilities are adjacent to the event room. There will be tables and folding chairs set up for us. I am bringing my camp chair for comfort. Their chairs look lightweight for my girth. The June 30th program is ~ Show and Tell us how managing Covid went for you – only what you want to share. We want to hear extra details so make notes of a story or two if you need them. Show is not necessary if you only have Tell. We have been through a lot and need to know we were not alone in our experiences.

July 10th, Fabric & More Sale: The Fabric & More Sale is scheduled for July 10th at the Eagles Hall, 1208 N Wenatchee Avenue from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Linda Lane is the coordinator this year and will have a sign-up sheet for helpers at the June 30 meeting. We need trucks to haul totes of fabric, set up people, cashiers and takedown crews to name a few. Fabric will be priced at $4 per pound at the top of the day. Details to be announced.

Jill Therriault spearheaded a crew that worked to organize the product in the storage shed last month. Thank you to the helpers. We know we have many other boxes that did not make it to storage. We will be happy to have them at the sale as well or for storage for the next sale. Masks are being requested during the sale for safety concerns.

To mask or not to mask is still a valid question in our world. The pandemic is NOT over! We want safety first, but will follow state government guidelines. If you are not vaccinated, you are required to mask. If you are compromised, you are wise to mask in an unknown population. If you are cautious by nature or experience, please feel free to mask yourself without censure. We all have our own story and level of trust so please respect everyone else’s. As a retired healthcare professional and child of the polio pandemic, I encourage vaccination.

2021 Quilt Show: Is cancelled due to lack of coordinated time to plan and advertise it.

Guild Positions: Linda McMaster has taken over the newsletter chairman position. She is looking for newsletter info for the July edition. Thank you, Linda and thank you Judy Preston for your past efforts.

VOLUNTEER

FOR A POSITION

Positions to fill: Membership, Fabric & More, Retreats 2022 and vice treasurer.

Other news: If you are needing a group to meet with, please come to the Open Round Robin in Diane Mitchell's yard any Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at 4071 NE Bluerock Drive, East Wenatchee, WA, phone 886.0733 now through September. Bring your lawn chair, lunch, water, sunscreen or hat, project, show and tell. Parking is easy and plentiful. Walking is flat and mostly paved. There is good shade under large trees and sprinkler for the rest of the yard for "air conditioning." It is a good way to get acquainted. Bring friends – not limited to guild members! Directions: North toward Orondo from Odabashian Bridge intersection. Bluerock is the 2nd right uphill into the subdivision. We are ½ mile more on the right.
