

“Tidbits” ~ A Message from the President Diane Mitchell, August 19, 2021

Meetings: From now until 2023, meetings are scheduled for the Meeting Room at Pybus Market, the last Wednesday of the month ~ except: October 20, 2021 and I think January and April of 2022. Stay alert for those changes as they are confirmed.

Next meeting, 8.25.21 ~ masks are required per state mandate.

Retreats: Sign up for the fall retreat at Campbells only have 26 members to date. Get in touch with Jill Therriault at 670.5318 or jilltherriault@gmail.com or sign up at the August meeting. Non-members may sign up at the meeting if you have a friend you want to bring along.
Retreat dates are: November 13-15th and the cost is $45.00.

Bus Trip: To the Spokane Quilt show is also needing more participants to meet costs. Plan to pay at the August meeting if you want to travel with the group. We expect this event will open to non-members as well. If you can't make the meeting, let Karla Hupp know if you want to go by meeting time. Karla can be reached at 264.3102 or hupp.karla@gmail.com. Same if you have a friend who wants to join us. We need 35 people to meet costs, but we have room for 40.

Quilt show date is: October 16th and the cost is $65.00 per person, but includes admission to the show in that price.

Committees: Open offices and committee positions are as follows:

- President ~ Diane Mitchell is willing to remain in her current position for 2022. She is also willing to step down if there is an eager beaver out there who wants to assume the helm, please speak up.
- Vice President ~ moving to president in 2023
- Assistant Treasurer ~ moving to Treasurer in 2023
- Comfort Quilts
- Programs
(Kathy Keagle and Debbie Deardorf are moving into the Fabric & More position)

Other: Leavenworth Quilt Shop is moving & changing ownership and location soon.

Minutes: The July meeting minutes were sent under separate cover on Monday the 18th.
