

NCW Quilt Guild
Masonic Center
January 30, 2013

President Jill Therriault brought the meeting to order at 6:3 pm.

There were no guests and two new members present, Audry Gettinger and Carolyn Fisk.

Treasurers' report: None was read.

Minutes: read and approved. Today is Jill's birthday, she didn't say which one.

Miscellaneous: The offer of a laptop has fallen through so if anyone knows of one available, please contact any of the board members.

Budget: Jill presented the new budget. There was a $2,325 profit from the Quilt Show, Kathy Baker stated that the January newsletter cost $104, which is over budget but it was voted that the budget be approved as read, if you overspend, it is okay.

BOM :There is no fee for participants. The new plan is to give everyone a six inch square of fabric with a theme (the theme for January is Winter Winds), all squares will be 12 inches finished.

Workshop:The Feb. 2 workshop by Bette Binder has been postponed until probably March as Bette is in the hospital. Chairperson Anne Dent will post a new date.

Donation: Brooke Halverson donated old fabric and patterns, feel free to take what you will use.

Volunteer needed : A volunteer is needed to lock the front door at 6:40. If you come in late, come to the back door and knock.

Retreats. Sun Mountain- May 17, 18, 19, 2013 Cost is $10. Still have five slots open.

Chelan: November 8, 9, 10, 2013. Cost is $30. Contact Lenora Branstetter. We have to have a minimum of 12 rooms filled. This is a new requirement.

Bordering on the Edge retreat is February 22, 23, 24, 2013. Cost is $10. Contact Sandy Ashbrook.

Ingalls Creek Enrichment Center was mentioned as a possible place for a retreat. Jan Hasberger will do some research.

Announcements: President Jill Therriault announced that she will be leaving to join her husband in North Dakota, probably within six months to a year.

The quilt show CD is now available.

Comfort Quilts: Debbie Egan stated that she has given away three comfort quilts so far. Pallative Care has raised $500 for the guild on their "Wear Jeans to Work Day." The money will be deposited into the Comfort Quilt account. A thank you card from a recipient was also read.

Hospitality: more signups are needed.

Membership: dues are due today.

Programs: Next month Geraldine Warner will do a demonstration on machine quilting.

Quilt Show Help: Louise stated that she needs volunteers for the Boutique, Publicity, Remembrance and Guest Guilds.

Round Robin: New members are needed.

Next Guild Meeting: February 27, 2013 at 6:00 p.m.

Adjourned at 8:40 pm

Respectfully submitted,
Arlene Crumrine
Secretary