

Quilt Snippets News July 2019

No road is long with good company ~ Turkish proverb

With our Quilt and Fiber Art Festival just around the corner, our first order of business and major focus of the July meeting will be to finalize event details and volunteer needs. Join us on July 31st.

~ Suzan Darling, President

- July Meeting Reminders:

- Bring your donations for Q&FAF Community Booth Display.
- To register your UFO for November completion, bring it to the July meeting.
- Q&FAF Entry forms are due by July 26th. Find the form on the website (ncwquilt.org) or in the July Newsletter.

- Raffle Quilt ticket sales at Pybus - July 10th & 27th: Wednesday and Saturday from 9a - 4p each day. Call Marlene Murphy (509-470-2457) to help at one of the sales events.

Congratulations to Marlene and her volunteers for a successful June sales day at Pybus, selling nearly 200 tickets. In support of our annual Quilt Festival, buy or sell tickets for this beautiful quilt made by Debbie Hiatt and a terrific team of volunteers.

- Final Quilt Festival Meeting - Wednesday, July 24th, 6 p.m. at the Wellness Place, 609 Okanogan, Wenatchee. Committee Chairpersons, please make every effort to attend this important final planning/review meeting. Many thanks to Louise Brown for taking on the Co-Chair position. It's never too early to think about joining the 2020 team. Meet and enjoy working with many fabulous guild members. The 2020 Festival planning will begin next January.

- Workshops & Quilt Studio: This Friday, July 12th, Quilt Studio is a review of Quilt Label options, 12 - 1p; general questions/sew-in until 4p. The next two, one-day Workshops are July 26th and 27th: Native American Beading taught by Anita Dupris, a life-long beader, $20. Location for both Quilt Studio and Workshop is Wellness Place, 609 Okanogan, Wenatchee.

- Program: The July program is "Threads that Bind" and will include prizes!

- Q&FAF Free Mini Classes:
